Komment

Politics is flourishing like measles in a careless community.

O-O-O

Aigrettes may be barred in Wa-Keeney society, but the women are just as fascinating.

O-O-O

Los Angeles is to have a squad of police on roller skates. They ought to be funny, if not very effective.

O-O-O

A Topeka woman, attired in a hobbie skirt, took a kick at a dog. The World readers can imagine the rest.

O-O-O

Ducks in a Missouri post office saved the place from being robbed, but they never will get as much advertising out of it as the geese that saved Rome.

O-O-O

Boston is shocked because a well-known young man married his nurse. Boston is the city that Benjamin Franklin moved away from when he started to grow up.

O-O-O

A year ago we were in the midst of politics. The Record, for one, wishes there was an election this year. David Harum said flees kept a dog from worrying about his troubles, and a lot of candidates buzzing about would keep a farmer from worrying about the wheat he didn't get.—Gove Record.

O-O-O

J. N. Tindal, just east of town, says he looked out across a piece of land he had sown to wheat the other morning and it was brown and bare. The next morning he looked again and it was a blanket of green. The wheat had come up an inch in twenty-four hours.—Osborne Farmer.

O-O-O

A Chase county farmer saved her hogs from cholera by suspending bags of assafetida from their necks. Nature has so arranged that a hog cannot express a preference, but it is a safe bet that he would stop and think it over if offered the choice of three things: Assafetida, bacon and hog cholera.

O-O-O

A Manhattan woman got a divorce and half her husband's property because he kissed a 42-year-old Kansas City school teacher. It cost him over $15,000, and we hold that this obituary, when the time comes, should contain the word "philanthropist." To kiss a 42-year-old school teacher is Charity, and should be recognized as such, particularly in any case where it costs money.

O-O-O

Foreman Wanzler is advertising for three more section hands. We interviewed a Mexican section hand and he said "Uh-huh" to every question put to him, admitting that the

Conditions Are Good

Jacob Mohler, of the state agricultural department, who has been sent out in this section to investigate the agricultural conditions, says:

"Western Kansas is developing and making a better percentage in an agricultural way than Eastern Kansas. I have been visiting practically all the western counties from Garden City west and am now going over the counties from Norton west and I find the people making great improvements in farming conditions and I believe on an average that the old settlers here today are better satisfied than those in the eastern part of the state."

A Salve Spreader

Henry Weill, a horse buyer from Lancaster, Pa., was in town Monday. He bought Ed Forney's black team for $250 and Squire Sherman's old sorrell mare for $250. Sam Lengel says the mare was no colt thirty years ago. Mr. Weill is mostly Dutch and is a salve spreader from away back. He came out here without an overcoat and with no heavy clothing. He was wearing a newspaper in the front of his vest and said it kept the wind from getting to him as effectively as a blanket would.—Gove County Record.

Smart Guys

Two weeks ago three Ness City boys got too much tangled down their gutlets and meeting a man near Mont Zion, pointed a revolver at him with the order to throw up his hands. Seeing they were drunk he drove on. Meeting another man they made him drink with them. Probably the boys regard this as a joke but if the law took hold of the matter and the boys punished perhaps the humor would be missing.

Rules For Would-Be Brides

Not that the future brides of Wa-Keeney and Trego county need any special advice on the matter do we print the following advice from a Chicago young lady—an actress, if you please:

"If you contemplate marriage, do not accept a man because he has those beautiful eyes.

Consider his fashion-plate dress. Mind if he has a wart on his nose. Above all, first learn if he is domesticated.

Kansas City Market Report

Kansas City Stock Yards, Oct. 24.—Twenty-four thousand cattle here today, added to the thirty-two thousand that came in yesterday, makes a formidable bunch for two days. Bulk of the native grass steers sell at $5.25 to $6.50; range beef steers bring $4.40 to $6.00; bulls $3.25 to $4.25 and feeders $4.65 to $5.90. Frosts have burned the grass over pretty much all over the country and cattle will be thick at the markets for a while.

The liberal run of 17,000 hogs here today, and there was more punishment meted out to the medium and light weights, the heavies holding almost steady. Top hogs brought $6.50, and anything decent in the heavy class sold $6.40 and upwards; butcher weights $6.20 to $6.50; pigs $4.25 to $5.25.

There is no reduction in sheep receipts. A larger country demand takes care of the increased proportion. Top lambs $5.90; wethers $3.75 feeders $4.65.

Tragic Wedding Party

An appalling happening occurred in Turkey a few days ago, at a wedding celebration, the bride, bridegroom and twenty-eight of the guests being blown to pieces. A powder merchant named Yahia was celebrating his wedding in the village of Sinan, in the Yemen when a terrific explosion occurred in one of the rooms where powder was stored. The bride and bridegroom and guests all perished, some of them being terribly mutilated.
